Warning Letter Re: FPPC No. 10/103, Diane Furukawa, Respondent

Dear Ms. Furukawa:

The Fair Political Practices Commission (the "FPPC") enforces the provisions of the Political Reform Act (the "Act"),¹ found in Government Code section 81000, et seq. This letter is in response to a pro-active investigation begun against you by the FPPC concerning your failure to report gifts of travel during your tenure with the Department of Health Services.

The FPPC has completed its investigation of the facts in this case. Specifically, the FPPC found that you failed to report receipt of two gifts of travel to San Antonio, Texas in 2007 and Chicago, Illinois in 2008 to make a speech at conferences sponsored by the American Medicaid Pharmacy Administrators Association.

The Act provides that public officials must disclose the receipt of gifts valued at $50 or more. (Section 87207(a)(1).) Additionally, the Act provides a limit on the value of a gift that a public official may receive from any one source. (Section 89503.) In 2007 and 2008, the gift limit was $390. The Act contains exceptions to gifts that are subject to the gift limit. Specifically, with regard to gifts of travel in connection with a speech, Commission regulations provide that a gift of travel, lodging and subsistence is not subject to the gift limit provided the travel is within the United States, is reasonably related to a legislative or governmental purpose, and the lodging and subsistence is limited to the day before, day of and day following the speech. (Regulation 18950.1(a).)

The gifts provided to you in connection with each speech at the conferences held by the American Medicaid Pharmacy Administrators Association is not subject to the gift limit, but nevertheless, must be reported by you on your Statement of Economic Interest (Form 700.)

Your actions violated the Act because you failed to report these gifts on your 2007 and 2008 Annual Statements of Economic Interests. However, since you voluntarily provided information concerning receipt of this gift and because you are no longer an official within the Department of Health Services, we are closing our file on this matter. Additionally, you have since amended your Statements of Economic Interests to report the receipt of these gifts.

This letter serves as a written warning. The information in this matter will be retained and may be considered should an enforcement action become necessary based on newly discovered information or future conduct. Failure to comply with the provisions of the Act in the future will result in monetary penalties of up to $5,000 for each violation.

A warning letter is an FPPC case resolution without administrative prosecution or fine. However, the warning letter resolution does not provide you with the opportunity for a probable cause hearing or hearing before an Administrative Law Judge or the Fair Political Practices Commission. If you wish to avail yourself of these proceedings by requesting that your case proceed with prosecution rather than a warning, please notify us within ten (10) days from the date of this letter. Upon this notification, the FPPC will rescind this warning letter and proceed with administrative prosecution of this case. If we do not receive such notification, this warning letter will be posted on the FPPC's website ten (10) days from the date of this letter.

Please feel free to contact me with any questions you may have regarding this letter.

Sincerely,

REDACTED
